TURKEY.

The Mediators.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 17.—No news has been received from the Consuls on the mission of peace to the insurrectionary districts since their arrival at Stolatz yesterday. Telegrams to their embassies during the journey state they met with a warm reception everywhere. Several insurgent chiefs had accepted their mediation. Some, however, declared their mistrust of Turkish promises, and demanded a formal guarantee and indemnity.

False Reports.

Turks Assembling in Albania.

In Albania all the Turkish militia have assembled. Twenty Syrian battalions have arrived and proceeded to the Montenegrin frontier. All frontier posts have been strengthened and provisioned.

FRANCE.

The Bonapartist Intrigues.

PARIS, September 17.—The formal conference of the Bonapartist party at Arenberg has been abondoned. The cause assigned is that the political excitement is so threatening that it was considered more prudent to remain quiet for the present. The Bonapartist organs and leaders preserve the strictest silence in regard to the affair. The Government is closely watching the movements of the Bonapartists, and is prepared to act with vigor should circumstances require.

SPAIN.

Carlists Demanding Peace.

HENDAYE, September 17.—The families of some of his most influential partisans are endeavoring to induce Don Carlos to conclude peace.

LONDON, September 18.—A Berlin special states the trial of the persons accused of participating in the revolutionary propaganda in Russia has been postponed to 1876.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Bullion for America.

LONDON, September 18.—The Daily News, in its financial columns, expresses the belief that the bullion withdrawn from the bank yesterday goes to America.

TERRIFIC STORM.

Damage to Shipping in the Gulf of Mexico.

Houston, Texas, Partly Submerged.

HOUSTON, TEXAS, September 17.—The storm at Galveston is the heaviest since 1867. The city is partially under water, and it is several feet deep in the principal streets. Several wrecks have been reported. The Ocean House, on the Gulf beach, is entirely surrounded with water, and the outhouses are gone. The city hospital is filled with water. Thirty workmen on the breakwater, being built by the Government, were cut off and lost. The Santa Fe Railroad bridge, across the bay, has been swept away, and the Houston Railroad is under water. Twenty feet of this end of it has been washed away. The water at Virginia Point has backed up for three miles on the main land, and is still rising. The gale is increasing, and the barometer is falling. The bay is so full of water that if the wind changes to the north the whole island is lost, and no lives can be saved. The shipping in the harbor is having a fearful time of it. The ship channel dredging fleet is safe.

NEW ORLEANS, September 17.—There has been no communication with Galveston for forty hours, consequently nothing is known regarding affairs there. But fears are entertained that much damage has been done by the storm.

NEW ORLEANS, September 17.—The equinoctial storm is prevailing. Dispatches from South Pass report it blowing hard. The ship Marie Greenleaf arrived from Bevalia, Del., at breakwater. She reports encountering a terrific hurricane in latitude 25 38, longitude 84 40, commencing northeast and ending southeast. She lost the fore and main top. The gale split the fore-top-mast stays and jib.

There is nothing from Galveston for forty-four hours. At last accounts the gale prevailed steadily. Morgan's steamer Mary and Harriet Lane and several small vessels are anchored inside, and two large English steamers outside.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 17, 1875.

Silk Smuggling Ring.

Sergeant Edward Shaw, of the Scotland yard police, London, has arrived here to testify in the case of Lawrence, who is awaiting trial in the Ludlow street jail on charges of forgery and defrauding the United States Government. The detectives declare that the combination of which Lawrence was an agent was very powerful, and has defrauded the Government out of very large sums. Its operations are believed to be checked for a time, but not wholly broken up, and it is asserted that this silk smuggling ring includes some houses of high standing in this city.

Beecher Declines a Public Reception.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher declines the proposed public reception at the Academy of Music, Brooklyn. In his letter of declination he says such a reception would tend to keep alive feelings that ought to subside, to renew discussions of painful public transactions which should never have had an existence, and which it were well, both for public and private good, to have removed, if not to forgetfulness, at least to obscurity. Too many hearts yet bleed, too much sorrow and scorching excitement has fallen upon kind, sympathizing hearts to make it wise to renew a public demonstration which might be misinterpreted, and which might excite animosity which any good citizens should seek to heal.

Another Fast Mail Train Over the Pennsylvania Central R. R.

In conjunction with the lightning morning train, the Pennsylvania Railroad intend in a short time to begin running a fast evening mail train, to make the same time as the morning trains.

Welsh Musical Festival.

SCRANTON, September 17.—The Welsh National Esteddfod continues with great success. Governor Hartranft presided yesterday afternoon. At the afternoon session fully 8,000 people were present, listening to several choirs, numbering from 200 to 300 persons each, in their congregations, for a prize in choral singing. The piece selected for the contest was "Rise up, Arise," from Mendelssohn's St. Paul. In the evening, when an immense throng was in attendance, the same piece was sung by the united choirs, numbering 1,500 persons.

THE NEW YORK DEMOCRACY.

Platform and Nominations of the State Convention.

A Democratic Prescription for Our Financial Ills.

SYRACUSE, September 17.—The Democratic State Convention reassembled this morning, when the following report from the Committee on Resolutions was read and adopted:

The Democratic party of New York renew their pledges of fidelity to the principles adopted and affirmed unanimously by delegates representing the Democrats of the United States together assembled in their National Convention, and since approved and endorsed by Democratic majorities in fifteen States, comprising more than half of the population of the Union. [From the National Democratic platform at Baltimore, July 10, 1872:] "The public credit must be carefully maintained," and we denounce repudiation in every form and guise. A speedy return to specie payment is demanded alike by the highest consideration of commercial morality and honest government. To these authentic declarations of Democratic principles and policy time gives proof. The present depression of business is caused by the reaction from the unhealthy stimulus of an excessive, depreciated and irredeemable currency; by enormous and ill-adjusted municipal, State and Federal taxation, and by extravagance, waste and peculation in the administration of public affairs. In the face of the fact that the existing volume of currency is greater than can be absorbed by busines, in the face of the fact that the recent fall of prices has followed repeated inflations, any attempt to increase the currency would be worse than ineffectual to revive prosperity, for it would interrupt the healing processes of industry. It would be worse than futile to restore confidence, for it would create distrust and new uncertainties in business, paralyze the beginning of enterprise, rob labor of its too scanty employment, and while stifling the progress of administrative reforms, would bring lasting dishonor upon the credit, the intelligence and the character of the country. The Democratic party of New York also re-affirm the principles set forth in their platform adopted last year at Syracuse, and endorsed by 50,000 Democratic majority at the election following, in a poll of nearly 800,000 votes, and vindicated before all the people of this republic by the illustrious administration of Governor Samuel J. Tilden.

[From the New York Democratic platforms, Syracuse, September 16, 1874.]

First—Gold and silver the only legal tender, no currency convertible with coin.

Second—Steady steps toward specie payments, no step backward.

Third—Honest payment of public debt in coin and sacred preservation of public faith.

Fourth—Revenue reform, Federal taxation for revenue only, no Government partnership with protected monopolies.

Fifth—Home rule, to limit and localize most jealously the few powers intrusted to public servants, municipal, State and Federal; no centralization.

Sixth—Equal and exact justice to all men; no partial legislation, no partial taxation.

Seventh—A free press; no gag laws.

Eighth—Free navies; a uniform excise law; no sumptuary laws.

Ninth—Official accountabilities enforced by better civil and criminal remedies; no private use of the public funds by public officers.

Tenth—Corporations chartered by the State always supervisable by the State interests of the people.

Eleventh—The party in power is responsible for all legislation when in power.

Twelfth—The Presidency is a public trust, not a private perquisite; no third term.

Thirteenth—Economy in public expenses, that labor may be lightly burdened.

The Democrats of New York, in Convention assembled, pledge themselves, their nominees and their representatives in the Senate and Assembly to follow where an honest and fearless Chief Magistrate has dared to lead in reforming the administration of our great canals, so long despoiled in their construction, maintenance, repairs and revenues; to carry on with unwavering purpose and fidelity wise measures; to increase the efficiency of all departments of public works and service, and to persist in reducing our State tax, in which burdens have already been lightened by the retrenchments and reforms of a single year to the amount of nearly $5,000,000, and upon this paramount, immediate and practical issue of administrative reform, we cordially invite the co-operation of every true Democrat, and every Liberal Republican, and all our fellow citizens of whatever party or name, who are willing, in the coming State election, to unite with us in supporting the reform candidates upon a reform platform.

The nominations then made were as follows:

John Bigelow (by acclamation) for Secretary of State; Lucius Robinson, for Comptroller; Charles S. Fairchild, for Attorney General; Charles N. Ross, for State Treasurer; John D. Van Buren, for State Engineer; Christopher H. Walrath, for Canal Commissioner; Rodney R. Croyley, for State Prison Inspector.

The usual vote of thanks and cheers for the ticket were then given and the Convention adjourned.

FATHER GERDEMANN.

The Ex-Priest Lectures in Manayunk, and is Attacked by a Catholic Mob—He Escapes Their Fury With a Few Bruises.

PHILADELPHIA, September 17.—Last evening Gerdemann, the ex-priest, delivered a lecture in Masonic Hall, Manayunk, on "The Roman Church as it is at present," and from the beginning until the lecturer had made his exit from that village there seemed to be a disposition on the part of the natives to treat him to anything else but ceremony. Upon concluding, Gerdemann placed himself under an escort and left the building, proceeding to the railroad station, while a mob collected and continued in close proximity to the party, until they reached that place. He was placed in the smoking car and both doors locked, while a posse of police remained outside. The mob, numbering almost a thousand, was a dangerous one. Suddenly they rallied, but the officers out of the way, captured the car broke in the door, and commenced an assault upon the ex-priest. He was protected, however, from serious injury by the police, receiving only a few bruises. Gerdemann escaped finally to a rear car, and under the care of the officers was brought to this city.

An Ounce of Prevention.

Prevent coughs and colds, and the diseases to which they inevitably lead by wearing boots and shoes which will protect the feet against the changes of temperature. And if you would ask where a good quality can be obtained at lowest figures, we say that R. Taggart, No. 129 Federal street, Allegheny, has just such an assortment of the best qualities and at just such prices as cannot fail to satisfy all ages, classes and pockets. A cheaper house has yet to be discovered.

Fall Styles

in the latest imported fabrics of fine Woolen Goods for Gentlemen's Garments are now to be found on the tables of Walter Anderson, No. 1 Fifth avenue, who is quite active taking orders for the same. As this is the season when heavier garments have to be looked after, we would suggest the propriety of leaving your orders with Mr. A., who, we can assure you, is quite a connoisseur in the art of making fine fitting clothing.

I Must Have an Overcoat.

Look here, young man, do not be in a hurry, as you may save money by dropping in at No. 53 Smithfield street, where you will find B. Tiegel up to the neck amidst a superb selection of overcoatings, which he has just received for this market. Because the goods look so neat and elegant, do not fear that the prices will be high, for Tiegel's heart is in the right place as to prices.

The Treasury Robbers.

Benjamin B. Halleck, accused of the larceny of $47,000 from the United States Treasury, was brought before the Police Court to-day for a preliminary hearing. He waived an examination. Bail was required in the sum of $40,000, in default of which he was remanded.

The preliminary examination of Theodore W. Brown, accused of the same larceny, was concluded this afternoon. The Police Court held him for the action of the Grand Jury. The bail required was $40,000. He made no attempt to procure it, and was sent back to prison.

The Red Cloud Investigation.

Secretary Delano was before the Red Cloud Commission to-day. He said, in response to a question, that he remembered, though indistinctly, that Brunot expressed to him an opinion in favor of the separation of the Indian Bureau from the Interior Department.

At the conclusion of the examination Prof. Marsh said he had no questions to ask the Secretary.

Yellow Fever.

The following dispatch was received at the Navy Department to-day, from the navy yard at Pensacola: "Yellow fever is epidemic at Howell's Station, on Pensacola Bay, twenty-five miles above the navy yard. The people have neither food, medicine nor attendance. They are crying in the name of God for relief. The navy yard is perfectly healthy."

WAR MEMORIES.

Regimental Society Reunions.

Renewing the Acquaintances and Friendships of Years Ago—Last Night's Meetings of Old Comrades—Fervent and Kindly Words from a Rebel Captain—Balls, Banquets, Speeches, &c.

Last evening being the anniversary of the battle of Antietam, was improved by many of the boys in blue in our vicinity as an occasion for fraternal reunions to fight their battles o'er again, and indulge in reminiscences of the camp and the march. How the evening was whiled away,—with patriotic eloquence, song, and story, with the recital of camp life quips and pranks, with memories of the bivouac and the battle, with fraternal pleasantries around the festal board—is fully detailed in the reports from the different battalions which are herewith submitted.

The Fourth Cavalry.

The surviving members of the Fourth Pennsylvania Cavalry met yesterday afternoon in Turner Hall, on Sixth avenue. About two hundred members of the old organization were present. Major W. M. Biddle was elected President, Major J. C. Paul Vice President, Isaac Miller Secretary, Dr. J. G. Green Corresponding Secretary, and W. H. Shillingwood Treasurer. A Constitution and By-laws were adopted, and the meeting adjourned until evening.

At half-past seven o'clock it convened again, and was opened with prayer by John P. Major. On motion of Colonel Duncan, a committee of six was appointed to prepare a list of honorary members. This continued all the preliminary business, and Col. J. S. Haymaker, the orator of the evening, was introduced, and spoke for about half an hour. His address consisted chiefly of reminiscences of the camp and field, and was frequently applauded. He was followed by Mr. Isaac Miller, General John H. Mailand, Major W. M. Biddle, and Colonel A. B Duncan, all of whom shared the fortunes of the Fourth Cavalry during the war.

But the most interesting event of the evening was the speech of Capt. John Cussons, who was on the staff of Major-General Rood, of the rebel army, during the rebellion. He is tall, has a splendid physique, long jet black hair that reaches to his shoulders, whiskers of like color, clear complexion and rosy cheeks. His remarks were replete with a nobility of sentiment and a love of country that we have seldom heard surpassed. We give the substance of his speech, as follows:

"I am not a speaking man, as you will find out inside of three minutes, but when I see before me soldiers whom I last met probably on the edge of other ten years ago could meet to-day there would be an embrace as cordial as between two brothers. We of the South ask your forbearance in one thing when, I cannot refrain from saying something. The sentiments that have heard spoken here to-night have carried to my heart a warmth that I cannot fully explain. I see before me evidences of a desire to shake the hands of a cordial brotherhood over the bloody chasm of the past, and I do assure you that it is fully reciprocated by me. The issues of the war were false, a fact which is now fully appreciated and recognized everywhere. The men who participated in the war were led into it by others who only had their own interests at stake. At the inception of our Government two ideas prevailed in regard to the doctrine of State Sovereignty. We of the South conceived our allegiance to be due to the State Government. That question was met and settled forevermore by the recourse that was had to arms. I know, because I have seen the first manifest here to-night, and I understand the feeling of the South, that if the soldiers who fought against each

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 116¼.

SECRETARY BRISTOW has called in $5,000,000 of five-twenty bonds, under the refunding act.

THE President is determined that the people of Mississippi shall be protected against the White League bands that have begun their work of terrorism. To this end he proposes, if it shall be necessary, to use the troops for a vigorous effort to suppress those vicious organizations, and to bring the murderers that belong to them to justice. He will carefully operate under the Constitution, but act rigorously, nevertheless.

THE city of Galveston is certainly dangerously located. A terrific storm is raging on the Texas coast, and the city is nearly submerged, with the probabilities in favor of its being entirely overflowed, unless the storm speedily abates. The suddenness and fearful character of storms at that point make it extremely dangerous. The city is located on an island, and the railroad bridge has been entirely swept away.

THE New York Democratic Convention has determined on a hard money platform. It may now be a question which is to be considered the real Democratic doctrine,—that of New York, or that of this State. The New Yorkers are consistent, but those of this State have nothing sufficiently definite to make any palaver over. It is evident that the Democracy of Pennsylvania are merely seeking to trick the people into their support, but if a mystified platform and rotten candidates serve this purpose successfully, we underrate the intelligence of the American people.

THE Post declares that Piolette, "has no religion to hurt," which is equivalent to declaring that he is a hard case. Well, that is about the opinion we have of him. A man, who came so near being bribed, that it was merely a question as to the quality of the money paid him, certainly has no religion to hurt,—nor, it may be added, moral principle, either. He will hardly do to be entrusted with the finances of the State, in the face of the fact that Rawle, the Republican candidate, is a man above suspicion of dishonesty, and perfectly capable of managing wisely the finances of the State.

THE political complications growing out of the Herzegovinian revolt are neither few nor trivial. They involve the settlement of grievances in Servia and Bosnia, and the Servians are greatly inclined to war because of the violation of their frontier. The provincial princes, in charge of the several principalities, are intriguing, each for prominence and preferment, and out of it all Turkey is likely to have a full supply of diplomatic trouble. Add to this that Russia and Austria are jealously watching her course, and we have the full scope of danger involved. The diplomatic negotiations promise to be more wearisome than the war outbreak.

THE State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, for Pennsylvania, will meet at Altoona, on the 23d instant, and remain in session until the 26th. This is regarded as an exceedingly important meeting of the Association, and it is intended to arrange during the session for greatly enlarged activity in the prosecution of Christian work. The statement of the Executive Committee of the New York Association pays a very handsome compliment to the Pennsylvania Association. It says that here the special object of such Associations is kept steadily in view,—that of organized effort to reach and save young men,—to a greater extent than in any other State. We have one hundred and twenty-five active and prosperous Associations, and the number is steadily increasing. We are gratified at the prosperity which attends this excellent work.

THE attempt of a morning contemporary to prove that PERSHING is less a monopolist than Ross, is rather a weak invention. His whole legislative record proves his absolute and entire subserviency to railroad demands, and this as the result of a change, wrought by the magic of a $500 retaining fee. Nothing is specially known of Ross' history that would indicate such subserviency. The fact that WALLACE was his backer in the Erie Convention does not necessarily prove his readiness to accept WALLACE'S dictation on all points. Besides, WALLACE was not defeated there because of his railroad proclivities. It was a struggle as to whether RANDALL should be the actual leader of the party in this State. He was beaten,—but his opponents were fighting railroads through him, and proved it by nominating a purchased sycophant for the Governorship.

DEMOCRACY is not a unit. The Erie platform declares that the hard times are due to the policy of contraction, adopted by the Republican party. The New York Democrats are equally positive that the "present depression of business is caused by the reaction from the unhealthy stimulus of an excessive, depreciated and irredeemable currency." Those at Erie taught that a gradual expansion of the currency will heal the business ills of the country, while those of New York declare it would be "worse than ineffectual to revive prosperity, for it would interrupt the healing process of industry." The Ericites, through their Chairman, Hughes, taught that greenbacks are money, and fulfill in themselves all promises of resumption; the New Yorkers declare—"First, gold and silver the only legal tender, no currency convertible with coin. Second, steady steps toward specie payments, no steps backward. Third, honest payment of debt in coin and sacred preservation of public faith." The Democracy of New York have at least the merit of consistency and honesty. The Democracy of this State is both inconsistent and dishonest.

ONE phase of the Exposition question is deserving of very special mention. There will be a good display of articles from beyond the limits of our city, and a very positive competition will develop against our manufacturers. The object of the Exposition is to promote Pittsburgh manufactures, and if it fails to do this, it will be because of the apathy of those most deeply interested. There is no danger whatever of any deficiency in display,—the supply of articles being all that can be desired. But there is a very great danger that unless our manufacturers shall arouse, it will prove detrimental to their interests. The management invite, cordially and earnestly, all our manufacturers, and all who have objects of interest, to prepare to display their wares, that Pittsburgh may have the credit it deserves. It is not for the Exposition's sake this is now asked, but for the welfare of those who should make the display.

HON. EDWIN McPHERSON delivered a speech at Reading, which thoroughly discusses the issues pending in the existing canvass. He accredits the virtuous and saint-like McCLURE with having set up the nomination of PERSHING in the Democratic Convention. We can see why this is probable,—the two being in the Legislature together, were attracted to each other by mutual admiration of the virtues possessed by each. They were birds of a feather. The one represented the beauties of pro-slavery Democracy, and the glory of monopolies, and the other poker, and the repeal of the tonnage tax. One mill ground out virtue for them both. It is, therefore, a fresh illustration of the durability of brotherly love, that McCLURE should seek the elevation of his old chum. What a spendid adviser we would have, were his election possible! To have a guardian saint, of the McCLURE type at one's ear, at all times, is a favor that few men are privileged with,—and fewer desire.

POLITICAL NOTES.

THE Omaha Herald proposes to "stand by the hard-money flag, no matter who trails it in the dust."

THE Nashville Banner asserts that the Congressional delegation of Tennessee favor S. S. Cox for Speaker.

IT is queer to find Jeff Davis, of all men, fighting for the blood-sealed greenback. All the world will marvel at his magnanimity.

GOODNESS, gracious! how some Democratic editors are preaching up temperance these times. Look out, temperance men, it is the Judas' kiss that will betray you.

HON. GALUSAA A. GROW has abandoned Texas and returned to Pennsylvania. He is in excellent health, and if is reported will take the stump for Hartranft and Rawle.

THE Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph calls upon its voting readers to scratch the name of one of the Democratic candidates for the Senate of Ohio because he is an Odd Fellow.

WALLACE and his crowd attribute their rushing defeat in the Pennsylvania Democratic Convention to the fact that their men got drunk and went back on their pledges.

PERKINS is a town in Maine. A year ago Perkins returned thirteen Republican and three Democratic votes. This year there are twenty-two Republican votes, and only one Democratic vote.

RETURNS from the New Jersey election come in but slowly, but it is estimated that the majority for the anti-Church-and-State amendments will be about 15,000, and that for the twelfth amendment about 15,000.

IT is said that, in ancient times, among the Grecians, monuments to departed heroes were erected by throwing stones upon them. That is what the Democracy of Erie did on the great Democratic gold-and-silver demigod they have worshipped since the days of Jefferson.

OUR Democratic cotemporaries are alliteratively harping on "Pershing, Piolett and Prosperity." But Hartranft and Honesty and Rawle and Retrenchment are alliterations that mean something, and will be practically illustrated during the next three years.—Norristown Herald.

GEN. THOMAS EWING writes to a friend in Washington that in his opinion Allen will be re-elected Governor of Ohio by a majority of not less than 40,000, and that these figures would have been increased to 60,000 had the school question not been brought into the campaign. Such majorities are not unprecedented—before elections.

THIS from the Connellsville Tribune fully explains itself. The editor, Mr. R. M. Sibbett, is one of the most enterprising and influential citizens of the place, and this course of the Tribune will not be to its effect on politics of the county: "Forty-three weeks ago, the Tribune entered the field of journalism as an independent paper, under the editorial management of H. S. Phillips. On the retirement of that gentleman, the present editor took charge and has endeavored to be impartial on political questions. That he has failed in this he is prepared to admit, as we firmly believe, that such a thing as an impartial political writer is unknown. Believing, as we do, that the Republican party is the one on which the people must rely for the prosperity and good government of the country, we feel it our duty to hoist the standard of that party, and render to it what little assistance is in our power. In county politics, we hold ourselves aloof from any clique. The Tribune is Republican in the broad sense of the term, and not in the interest of a small section of that party. We make no further promises, but leave the matter in the hands of those who can watch our course."

MRS. ISAAC BEESON, of Uniontown, has made a donation of $1,000 towards the erection of new college buildings at Waynesburg.

HIS name was Noll, his home Reading, and he thought a little coal oil would accelerate combustion in lighting a fire. The Coroner entered a nolle prosequi forthwith.

THERE have been 118,765,008 feet of lumber shipped from Williamsport so far this year, a decrease as compared with the corresponding period of last year, of 58,068,589 feet.

THE Penn Gas Coal Company have put a passenger train on their road which makes connections with the P. R. R. at Irwin and with trains on the Connellsville road at the mouth of Sewickly creek.

THE Harrisburg Patriot says hogs are dying in large numbers in the upper end of that county from a disease which takes off its victim in about twenty-four hours, —the only symptoms are weakness and loss of appetite.

THIEVES attempted to enter the residence of the editor of the Mercer Dispatch the other night, strangely entertaining the belief that a printer had something worth stealing. The Dispatch says: "For the information of the thieves who attempted to break into our house the other evening we desire to say that we haven't carried five dollars over night for a month; our silver is mostly plated; we have no valuables of any kind; but we have a dog and a revolver, and our wife will shoot."

GEORGE SWEIGART, aged nearly seventy years, a farmer residing in East Cocalico township, Lancaster county, was attacked by a ram in his own barn yard, on Saturday last, and was injured so severely that he died before evening.

A CORRESPONDENT says if ever a pestilence visits the oil regions Parker will get the lion's share of it, for a more beastly smell can't be found under the heavens. About fourteen ship loads of chloride of lime might do some little good.

A SINGULAR accident took place on the farm of Isaac H. Grabill, in West East township, Lancaster county, on Wednesday last. They were engaged in threshing wheat, in Mr. Grabill's barn, when the cylinder burst into one hundred the sixty-two pieces, flying in every direction; but no one was injured. Eight persons were in the barn at the time.

NICHOLAS STERN, sixty-five years of age, was found hanging in his barn, near Schwenksville, Montgomery county, on the 6th instant. The old man and his wife had been quarreling for several days, and on Sunday he threatened to kill her or himself, when she became alarmed and went away to a neighbor's. Next morning she returned home, and soon afterwards found her husband dead in the barn, as above stated.

ON Monday of last week, a little eight-year old son of Joseph Carter, residing in West Goshen township, Chester county, was kicked in the head by a horse, and the injuries received are more than likely to prove fatal. The sad affair took place in a field near the barn, while the little boy and his brother were bringing in the horse from the pasture. The blow was so severe as to cause some of his brains to exude from the fractured skull.

A GRAND array of legal talents has been secured to defend Messrs. John Siney and Xingo Parks, whose trials are to take place at Clearfield in the course of a few days. Among the distinguished counsel we note the names of Hon. Matt. H. Carpenter, ex-United States Senator, of Wisconsin; Gen. B. F. Butler, Hon. Daniel Voorhees, of Indiana; Hon. Thomas Ewing, of Ohio; Hon. Jermiah S. Black, Min. Bartholomew, Frank Hughes, and others, all of whom, with the exception of Mr. Carpenter, have volunteered their services in behalf of the defendants.

WM. BLACK and Elizabeth Bailes, of Hillsboro, ind., dreamed of love and matrimony, as many a fond couple have done before; but in their case, as in, alas! so many others, the course of true love did not run as smoothly as was desired. Pater familias of the lady interposed objections, and in order to overcome them, the pair left Scenery Hill at midnight on Monday night of this week, and in a buggy wended their way to Washington. As they were waiting at the Hemfield depot for the morning train to depart, the old folks put in an appearance, and the train departed with two passengers less than it would have done had not the old gentleman and lady arrived in the nick of time. However, the result was perfectly satisfactory to the young folks. Friends interfered, and advised in favor of allowing them to be married. Consent was at last given, and Justice Riggle tied the knot, and sent them on their way rejoicing.

QUARTERMASTER GENERAL MEIGS, with his son, Lieutenant Newcomb, Colonels Dickinson Woodruff and Delancey Floyd Jones, of the United States army, witnessed the autumn manoeuvres of the German army at Leignitey, on Thursday, which were on a grand scale.

ABOUT 400 feet of the track of the St. Louis Narrow Gauge Railroad went into the Mississippi river last Thursday night by the caving in of the bank about a mile above the levee north of Cairo. Trains will be unable to come into the city on that road for several days.

A boy named James Casselbury had one of his arms fractured while climbing over a fence near Union Park, yesterday afternoon, to get a base ball knocked there by one of the players in the park. He was carried to his home and Dr. Wilson was medical aid summoned, and the fracture reduced.

Pittsburgh Female College.

This favorite Institution is opening up a most desirable fall and winter prospectus term. The new buildings and those remained by the Trustees are giving great satisfaction, and everything betokens a year of unusual prosperity. New pupils are coming in every day. And all this is just what this best College in Pennsylvania for ladies so richly deserves.

A Hemy Fine.

A man named Lewis Yost was before Mayor Phillips on a charge of erecting a wooden building on South avenue, in violation of the city ordinances. He was fined $100 and costs, and he was allowed until to-day to pay the fine. If he does not pay it he will appeal the case to a higher Court, as he claims that the building is partly intended for a dwelling house, and is therefore no violation of the ordinance.

Marching Clubs in Allegheny.

A large number of Young Republicans, of Allegheny, met at Knapp's Battery Armory last evening, for the purpose of organizing a marching club in connection with the Young Men's Republican Club. Rules were adopted for the government of the club.

The following officers were elected: Captain, James D. Walker; Lieutenants, Wm. Canham, Wm. Brothers and James Archibald. A large number were present.

A meeting will be held at the North Avenue School House, in the Third ward, this evening, for the purpose of forming a ward club. It is to be hoped that the Republicans of the ward will turn out in force and join the club, as it is the same club that was organized in that ward during the last Gubernatorial campaign.

The Galaxy

The Galaxy for October is as bright and fresh as a May blossom. Among the contributors to this number are Mrs. Annie Edwards, Justin McCarthy, Fanny Warry, Rose Terry Cooke, Henry James, Jr., Richard Grant White, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Albert Rhodes and others, who have made a place in the literary world as prose and poetical writers of signal ability. A table of contents for the October is varied, and there is something for every taste. The first chapter of "The Story of Avenel," in the front, and well deserves its wide popularity.

Sheriff's Sales.

In this morning's issue will be found a list of sales of property, that, by the mutations of fortune, has fallen into the hands of Sheriff Hare. Some of the pieces of real estate in the list are among the best properties to be found in the county, and will be rare bargains. There will be one consolation for those who have been so unfortunate as to have their property thus brought into the market and that is, they could not have found a better man to sell for Sheriff Hare, while attending to his official duty, never fails to make the very best he can for those whose real estate comes under the hammer of the Sheriff, in this, as in all other matters, while attending with faultless efficiency to his official trust, never loses the feeling of the man, and in this he discharges the delicate duties of his office in a manner to give universal satisfaction to all, whether debtor or creditor. He has business qualifications of a high order, and he is assisted by one of the most efficient corps of clerks in the city. All of whom, it should be remembered with kindness by the "victims" who have "copy to set," the chirographic excellence of his penmanship is emphatically endorsed by the "comps," who pronounce it "as clear as a copper plate." Alf. wields a marvelously graceful quill pen.

Ho! For Long Branch—Smythe's Excursion No 2

The great excursion to Long Branch is a theme of general conversation, and judging from the talk about it, the attendance will be unprecedentedly large for an excursion. Many business men will take the opportunity to make a visit to that resort, and will combine business with pleasure by taking members of their family with them to spend a couple of days "by the sounding sea." Every arrangement has been made for the comfort of the excursionists, and there will be nothing lacking to make it a delightful one. The route would be more attractive than a sight of the mountains in golden September, and a look at the ocean when the under is just cool enough to make wandering over the beach tolerable? An incidental feature for all who wish to enjoy a small throw of gold, be the trip to New York, which can be taken for $1.50 and in less than an hour and a half. Mr. Smythe will accompany those who wish to go to the metropolis of New York, and as he is familiar with the Metropolitan Hotel, he will be able to take the excursionists to see the sights of the best advertised hotel in the world. The excursion starts from the Union Depot at eight o'clock on Monday morning.

SUICIDE.

A Woman Ends Her Life by Taking a Dose of Poison.

Last night Annie Moore committed suicide by taking a dose of poison at her place of residence on Penn avenue, opposite Main street. No cause is given for the rash act, and what induced her to put an end to her life remains a mystery. The Coroner was notified of the fact and will hold an inquest on the remains this morning.

THE ART DISPLAY.

Pictures at the Exposition—Arranging for the Display.

Our local artists yesterday afternoon had a meeting to perfect arrangements for the display at the coming Exposition. There was a full attendance, and much interest was manifested, showing that the display will be a grand one. The artists resolved themselves into a Committee of the Whole to secure pictures, and those of our citizens who have fine pictures will be called upon for a loan of them. It was arranged that the pictures should be left at J. J. Gillespie & Co.'s, who would be responsible for them. They will be taken care of by Mr. A. S. Wall, who will give his personal attention to the work. All the pictures will be insured while they hang in the Art Gallery, the insurance to be paid by the Exposition Managers. A charge is given for the exhibition of pictures, and the rumor that the charge is to be charged is, therefore, without foundation. The fact that Mr. Wall will have charge of the pictures is the best guarantee that they will be well taken care of. The Hanging Committee is composed of the following artists: Miss Beeson, and Messrs. Hetzel, Bussman, Earle and Woolwell.

DEFEATED AGAIN.

Victory of the Iron City Club Over the Xanthas.

The Xanthas and Iron City base ball clubs played at Union Park yesterday afternoon and the game had a rather unexpected ending in the total defeat of the former. The batting on both sides, particularly toward the close of the contest, was unusually heavy. At the end of the ninth innings the scores stood 13 to 8 in favor of the Iron City, and it was played, in which the Iron City made five runs and the Xanthas none. The score is as follows:

PAYING OFF INTEREST.

The Investment of The Sinking Fund Declared Illegal—Other Measures for Raising Money Taken

A meeting of the Finance Committee was held yesterday afternoon, in the office of Controller Slagdrage, for the purpose of discussing the ordinance for the investment of the Municipal Sinking Fund in order to raise money for the payment of interest on Penn avenue bonds. An ordinance providing for a temporary loan of $[illegible],000, with which to pay this interest, was presented, and on motion of Mr. Aiken, it was affirmatively recommended to Councils. The next ordinance was one authorizing the investment of the Municipal Sinking Fund in bonds, from the sale of which it was anticipated that a sum would be realized sufficient to pay the above interest.

City Attorney Bigelow was asked for his opinion as to the legality of the bill, and he stated that the tax raised for the Sinking Fund purposes this year could not be applied to the purchase of street interest bonds. He recommended that the third section, which provides that the bonds shall be stamped in such a manner as to show that they were issued for the Sinking Fund, be stricken out and the title of the ordinance amended. On motion of Mr. Thompson the recommendation was adopted and the ordinance was so amended as to provide that the money now in the City Depositories, amounting to some $[illegible], and applicable to the payment of South Side Market House bonds, be invested for the purpose of liquidating the interest now due on Penn avenue bonds. These Market House bonds bear eight per cent interest per annum, but they do not mature for two years yet, and the Committee deemed it wise to use the money already secured by loan for their redemption than to allow it to lie idle in the City Depositories. The ordinance as amended was affirmatively recommended to Councils.

A bill for the election of certain city, ward and district officers by qualified voters of the city, ward or district, was referred to a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Aiken, Lintell, Negley and Thompson. Petitions for weigh scales in the Twenty-first and Twenty-third wards, and at the corner of Thirty-first and Railroad streets, were referred to the Scale Committee. Several petitions for tax abatements and exonerations were presented and disposed of, and the Committee adjourned.
